

I recently received a letter from Greg Hewitt informing me that I had been thrown out of the BVWS.

This was an unlawful act according to English law. I responded and demanded to be reinstated and the facts of this situation be passed on to the membership.

I have received no response, therefore the Plastic Android will put the details to the membership.

I want to look at each of the people involved in this and will start with the BVWS Secretary - Jeremy Owen

Jeremy –

This chap is the person who decided not to claim expenses for the previous RETROTECHUK meeting but emailed all committee members boasting of that decision fully aware that some members did not have his financial resources.

This chap is the person who spoke loudly against Mike Barker being made life president in that he should not have voting rights that it should be just a simple, nominal title.

This chap is the person who spoke loudly about the previous membership sec not being awarded life membership of the BVWS as he had volunteered for the task and that a letter thanking him for his efforts would be enough.

This chap is the person who demanded that his good friend (Borinsky) receive £70 tax free (note 1) for a 2021 event, £70 tax free for staffing a door at the 2022 RETROTECHUK event, a free table at the event, free entry for his chums (helpers) and have his table next to the BVWS table. Nepotism!

This chap is the person who emailed the entire committee saying valuable donations to the BVWTM could be replaced with junk from Mikes BVWS stall – please read the front-page email on the Plastic Android web site. Do you think this shows intent of fraud and theft? Please tell me what you think.

This chap is the person who, while representing the BVWTM plotted against it. Is this not two faced, sneaky behaviour showing a complete lack of integrity? Please tell me what you think.

Gregory –

This chap is the person who, when he received the email from Jeremy about not claiming expenses called him 'a jumped up little wanker' and a 'typical short guy with a range rover'. (I agreed)

This chap is the person who, when he discovered Borinsky was using the BVWTM stall to raise funds for his own charity agreed this was unacceptable. We made an agreement about how to handle it but when bullied by Jeremy did a complete 180% and messed his big boy panties.

This chap is the person who, when I asked for this matter to go to the committee stated that he would deal with it alone, not involve the committee and boasted about having 'big shoulders'. He now lies through his teeth and states that the committee was involved in refusing my request for an EGM and states that this matter was not about the abuse Benita and my good self suffered – all stemming from Jeremy's disgraceful email. Instead, he blithely lies through his teeth and states it was about distribution of BVWS excess funds.

This chap is the person is to be found at the events guarding the buns. If you see him there, please discuss this matter with him.

Just an aside here Gregory old chap – all you could do about Benita being so upset was state ‘it’s such a shame the lovely Benita is upset’.

Right up until then I would have stood shoulder to shoulder with you against anything or anyone. If someone had upset the lovely Debbie I would have come down like a ton of bricks to support her. I realised then you had no substance. Your comments about being friends with gangsters and I could hide behind bush’s do not work in Romford. You would be hard pushed to be a bouncer in Mothercare’s down this this way me old mate.

Anyway, writing these emails is upsetting for me but I need to get them to you when you are all together so you can discuss.

The Plastic Android website is still under development but will be ready for distribution by Christmas. Until then please keep the website private as I still hope for an apology and to be reinstated.

Note 1 – the tax-free status is under discussion with one of my ex-students who has gone on to great things at HMRC.
